

WEEKLY PARENT MEMO: 5/11/15

I just want to wish a special Mother's Day to all of the awesome moms out there. I am always so amazed with everything you do! I hope you have a very special day and know how much we appreciate you.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

We want to extend huge congratulations to Sam Jarman. He was just approved by the ASD board as our new superintendent. He has already been a great support to Forbes as the assistant superintendent. We know he will do an incredible job in his new role.

- Last week of SAGE testing. Please help your children attend school each day after a good night's rest and a healthy breakfast. They are doing a great job!
- May 13th: PTA meeting at 4:00 in the faculty room. If you are interested in helping out with our carnival, please come join us! PTA is so FUN!
