Books should be just right books. Books may be read aloud and discussed to the student if they are not reading independently yet. Parent should initial by the book that it is completed.

- Fill out the information for each book read.
- Books read from the first day of school count. The challenge ends on May 12, 2013.
- To count as completing this year's Reading Hall of Fame all books must be read and turned in by May 19, 2012.
- Choose "Just Right" books to read.
- If you have a question about if the book will qualify ask your teacher or the school librarian.
- Have your parent initial next to each title read.
- When you have completed the challenge, turn your paper into Mrs. Adams in the Media Center.
