David Smith from the district explained UCAS-Utah's Comprehensive Accountability System. The purpose is to measure proficiency and progress. Point system scores overall, growth and all students. Aspen has a score of 224 out of 300 in proficiency In growth Aspen has a score of 191 out of 300. 415 total. As a school our score is below the state average, but we are showing growth and making improvement.

This information is available on usoe.org, click on UCAS, Aspen, and it will show our school. Other schools can be viewed for comparison.

AIR-new adaptive test announced by the state and will start in the next year or two. Alpine thinks it will be better for students and teachers.

Stakeholder reports need to be distributed to local businesses, Orem City, Lindon City, Schools in the area.

We have funded STARS, double dose, Aides in 2nd grade, home reading to address growth issues.

Think about funds for next year and how we want to allocate the funds for the 2013-14 school year.

Next meeting March 6th.
