

Saratoga Shores Families,

We are having school today and expect to follow our normal schedule. Due to the storm, we are having spotty phone service this morning. The district is aware and working as quickly as possible to restore phone service. Email is working. So, please feel free to email me if you need assistance. Thanks for your patience and understanding.
It's a Great Day to be a Shark!!!