Principal's Message

I'm thrilled to begin yet another school year at Sego Lily. We have decided to return to the tradition of posting class lists on the front doors and will post them this Friday, August 2, 2013 at 5:00 p.m. at the entrance of the school. If this is not convenient, please log onto Skyward after the 16th and you will see who your child's teacher is.

Mrs. Johnson

As I reflect back to my own life, when I was about your age, I remember how excited my own children were to begin school. I know your children will be in good hands because Sego Lily teachers have been attending workshops, organizing their classrooms, collaborating together in teams, and shopping for their supplies. Believe me, the teachers are just as excited for school to begin as your children are.

I sincerely hope you all enjoy the last couple weeks of summer with your little ones. I know that when they return to school, they will be taught with loving care and will learn how to care for others. Thank you so much for entrusting us with your most valued possessions.

Sego Lily Spirit Sticks Once Again!

Rewarding student achievement is crucial at Sego Lily. It is our desire to find ways to reward students by providing non-food incentives. As a result, our school will continue using Spirit Sticks. These incentives will support our desire to promote healthy bodies and minds.
