

Soaring Eagle Award

Fifth Grade

White Medal - Students must complete one task from three different areas.

Blue Medal - Students must complete two tasks from three different areas.

Orange Medal - Students must complete three tasks from three different areas.

Reading	Citizenship	Physical Fitness
White - Read 20 books from at least 3 genres.	White - 150 minutes of service and a report of what you did.	White - 10 laps around the field.
Blue - Read 24 books from at least 3 different genres	Blue - 180 minutes of service and a report of what you did.	Blue - 11 laps around the field.
Orange - Read 28 books from at least 3 different genres	Orange - 210 minutes of service and a report of what you did.	Orange - 12 laps around the field

Reading tasks are completed by filling out the Soaring Eagle Reading Chart. Books must be on or above grade level.

Citizenship tasks are completed by turning in the report of what you did.

Physical Fitness tasks are completed by parent/guardian signature on the back of the reading chart.

Laps may be ran or walked.

Soaring Eagle Award

Fifth Grade

Math	Science	Social Studies
Use pictures, numbers and words to explain a strategy to divide a 4-digit number by a 2-digit number.	Identify chemical reactions in daily life (at least 5 different reactions). Explain each reaction.	Compare the geographic and cultural differences between the New England, Middle and Southern Colonies.
Explain why multiplying a given number by a fraction greater than one results in a product greater than the given number and also why multiplying a given number by a fraction less than one results in a product less than the given number. Use pictures, numbers, and words in your explanation.	Research how technology is used to predict when volcanoes will erupt as well as when earthquakes will occur.	Explain the content and purpose for the Declaration of Independence.
Write ten word problems that can be solved by multiplying fractions. Explain your solutions using pictures, numbers, and words.	Construct a compass and explain how it works.	Identify a right provided by the Constitution or its amendments and explain how it has impacted your life or the life of someone in your family.
Explain how the formula for finding the volume of rectangular prisms works. Use pictures, numbers and words in your explanation.	Make a working model of a complete circuit. Explain how it works.	Identify a current issue facing the world today and propose a role the United States could play in being part of the solution.
Research a math topic studied in your grade level. Report your findings.	Research a science topic studied in your grade level. Report your findings.	Research a social studies topic studied in your grade level. Report your findings.

These tasks may be passed off with Miss Knadler on Wednesdays after school in the office (at both 2:15 pm and 3:30 pm). Tasks can be presented orally, written, or digital form (i.e. Power Point, movie, etc.).